Paper Trust Surrendered.

The United States Government secured an unconditional surrender in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge Sandburn, of the Paper Trust, against which the Attorney General began a suit on December 27, 1904, to dissolve a combination between the general paper company and twenty-three other defendants on the ground that an agreement had been entered into by the defendant in restraint of interstate commerce.

Mrs. Cunningham Loses Suit.

The Lexington Street Railway Company won the suit brought against it by Mrs. Lavinia E. Cunningham, of Bourbon county, to recover $10,000 for injuries alleged to have been caused by the company. The verdict of the jury was, "We find for the defendant."

Mrs. Cunningham fell in getting off a street car in front of the South Broadway Inn, in Lexington two years ago. She was badly bruised and her hip was injured.

Mrs. Cunningham will file a motion for a new trial, alleging improper instructions to the jury, and that the defendant filed an amended answer after the case had been put on trial.

State Treasurer Bosworth Hurt.

While driving in the Eastern part of Lexington Saturday night about 11 o'clock, State Treasurer H. M. Bosworth was thrown from his buggy and suffered an ugly scalp wound, a sprained ankle and was badly shaken up.

Mr. Bosworth was driving a spirited horse which shied, collided with a carriage and upsetting the buggy. He clung to the reins until the horse was seized by bystanders.

He was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital in an unconscious condition, but is reported some better.

MRS. WALLER SHARP DEAD.

Was in Excellent Health Up to Last Friday.

Mrs. Mettie Elgin Sharp, wife of Hon. Waller Sharp, died at her home near Sharpsburg, Saturday night, of paralysis of the brain, aged about 56 years. Mrs. Sharp was in Sharpsburg Friday afternoon and was seemingly in excellent health, talking and chatting with her friends as was her custom. During the night she was suddenly stricken and notwithstanding all efforts to save her, she died surrounded by her family. Mrs. Sharp was a native of Georgetown and well-known in all this section being noted for her beauty when a girl. She was a sister of Mr. J. C. Elgin, of this city.

She is survived by her husband and three children, Elgin Sharp, Waller Jr., and Miss Anna Jefferson Sharp. She was universally popular and was loved and respected for cheerfulness of disposition and unbounded charity. Mrs. Sharp had just moved into her handsome new home.

BOURBON COUPLE ELOPES,

And After Meeting With Disappointment Finally Marry.

Mr. Francis Ritchie and Miss Fannie Taylor, both of this county, left Sunday on an excursion to Louisville and decided while there to get married. They went over to Jeffersonville across the river but the officials would not grant them license on account of the youthful appearance of the couple. They felt a little humiliated but could not be bluffed. They returned home Sunday night, and in company with a cousin of the groom returned to Jeffersonville, where they married yesterday. They returned last night to the home of the groom's father, Mr. J. H. Ritchie, of Stony Point. The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. P. Taylor, of this county.

Free Lecture.

Dr. J. N. McCormick, Secretary of Kentucky Board of Health, will deliver an address at the court house Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m., to the general public. His subject on this occasion will be "Things About Doctors Which the Public and Other Doctors Ought to Know."

Doctor McCormick has been doing a great work all over the United States in organizing the medical profession, in ridding the country of imposters, in establishing higher standards, and in giving the public better doctors. Doctor McCormick comes from Bowling Green, Ky., and is giving the month to this work in his home state.

Ministers, teachers, lawyers, doctors, doctor's wives and all citizens should hear this address, for everyone is sure interested in his physician. It is hoped that he will be greeted by a large audience as the lecture will not be technical, but interesting to laymen as well as to doctors.

KISSING BECOMING AN IMPORTANT FACTOR.

Kissing is evidently becoming an important part of the political game, for two of the most eminent osculators, Hobson, of Alabama, and Hoch, of Kansas, have received nominations from their respective parties. But there is a vast difference between the Hobson, of Democratic brand, and the Hoch, of Republican grade. In the case of Hobson, many women seemed anxious to be kissed, while the latest reported attempt of Hoch, although he is governor of Kansas, the lady in the case repulsed him. That should settle Hoch's case with the voters.

TOUGH ON "THE BOYS."

Speaker Cannon a few weeks ago was certain that Congress would adjourn at an early date, and "the boys" would go home, mend their political fences, by pointing to what they had accomplished and be triumphantly re-elected. But the Speaker is now more pessimistic and evidently feels that "the boys" are not on easy street, for he says: "I see no prospect of an early adjournment. We'll be here some time yet." And what makes the voters disgusted is that the Republican majority has not put a law on the statute books, with a vestige of reform in it, up to date, and this is the party that boasts of "doing things."

POLITICAL CAMPAIGN EXPENSES.

In the discussion of the bill now pending in Congress for requiring that all contributions to political committees shall be reported to the Clerk of the House of Representatives, some very interesting statistical matter was brought out. It was shown that from the very beginning of its career the Republican party has relied largely on the use of money in elections, and that in 1896 its national campaign fund amounted to sixteen million five hundred thousand dollars, while that of the Democrats reached only $375,000. In 1900, the Republicans spent $3,500,000 and the Democrats $425,000. Strong efforts have been made to discover how much money Mr. Bliss and Mr. Cortelyou received in 1904; but though it has been proven that they and Mr. Babcock got enormous sums from the life insurance companies, and has been charged and not denied, that they also received large sums from the trusts and railroads, it has been impossible to discover how much money was expended by the party of corruption and special privilege.

Many of these contributions were taken from trust-funds by men like Perkins, McCurdy, McCall and Hyde, and District Attorney Jerome, of New York, who has had Perkins arrested on the charge of larceny, said that if Perkins is guilty, then it follows that Bliss, the treasurer, and Cortelyou, the Chairman of the Republican national committee, are guilty of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen.

This may account for the silence of the President respecting these contributions. He would, no doubt, have ordered the stolen money to be restored to the life insurance companies, if it were not that restitution of stolen goods by the receivers after discovery, would amount to a confession of larceny and put the President's friends, Bliss and Cortelyou, in the same predicament with Perkins—a fact which would sadly interfere with the gayety of the President's official family. He would not compel the members of that family to give evidence against themselves by restoring money stolen from widows and orphans who have no votes. That would be "a miscarriage of justice," almost as bad as that for which he hampooned Judge Humphrey in his recent message to Congress.

WHAT IS LIBEL?

If the laws governing words or charges which are put in writing should be made applicable to words spoken, there would be few men and few women who would escape the pains of the law. But the statutes are diverse on the subject and the question: "What is libel?" is the pertinent and interesting question. It is reasonable and sound to define libel as a written or a printed statement designed to do injury to some person and published with malicious intent, for malice is the essential element of libel.

Libel is one thing the reputable newspaper seeks to avoid, for the publisher of that class of newspapers not alone appreciates the public support he receives, but is careful of the reputation and character of the individual units making up the sum total of the community in which he publishes his paper.

There can be no malice in a mistake. Neither can there be malice on the part of the newspaper in the publication of the news, if of public interest to a community, provided the usual and the ordinary means of verification are employed in the investigation of the item—and yet as in remarks made by individuals, the reputable newspaper is sometimes imposed upon or is mistaken—but there has never yet been an instance where the reputable citizen, or the reputable newspaper, has not hastened to make all due reparation possible, and to place the parties affected in their proper light before the community and in a manner as public and as conspicuous as was given to the item containing the mistake.

It is not given to man to go through this life without mistakes accompanying his walk; neither is it possible for the newspaper to go through its career without falling into errors at times—but the errors are always regrettable and haste is always made to do that which the circumstances of the case require, case require.

Of course that sort of acknowledgement fails to suit the damage suit lawyer or the ambulance chaser, but it is a course which commends itself to a discerning community and always will.

His Ashes to Feed Roses.

When Capt. Henry Meiser, the famous horticulturist, died at his home in Cincinnati, O., in 1894, it was his last wish that his remains be cremated and scattered on the ground where his beloved roses were planted. His ashes repose in an urn on the mantelpiece at the home of Dr. Emil Rothe until recently, when the dying wish of their beloved friend was carried out by Dr. Rothe and Joseph Renner. Carrying the vessel of precious ashes to Eden park they reverently scattered them on the flowerbeds which is situated on the bluff overlooking the Ohio River. When the roses, which their dear friend loved better than anything else in life, are in full bloom, they hope to get permission from the city authorities to cull them.

NO CONTEST

But a Plain Business Proposition.

Chance to Make $50 in Gold.

Every Young Lady in Bourbon Eligible.

People are always crying "keep the money at home," and to help carry out this motto the Bourbon News is going to make a plain business proposition to the young ladies of Bourbon county, whereby they can take a trip to any place they desire and at the same time assist in pushing a home enterprise along without any scrambling contest whatever and also at the same time everybody will get value received for their investment. This is no contest where there will be any disappointments. No contest where some young lady will run in the lead until the last minute and then the one who has been running last to come in and defeat her by having her friends to buy enough coupons or subscribe for enough papers, to make her win over the one that has led throughout the contest. Our proposition is no fake, but simply a plain business proposition and is as follows: Any young lady of Bourbon county who will bring to the Bourbon News office on or before July 15th, 1906, 75 cash subscribers we will give her $50 in gold, to be used as she likes.

Any old subscriber who is in arrears and pays up to date and for one year in advance to any of the young ladies who accept our offer will be counted in their list of new ones.

This proposition is open to every young lady in the county, and just as soon as you hand in the seventy-five names with the cash subscriptions, the $50 in gold will be handed to you.

HAD THE SUICIDE HABIT.

Denver Girl Tried Over a Dozen Ways to End Her Life.

After having vainly tried nearly a dozen different novel methods of committing suicide Miss Mamie Hendricks, 19 years old, of Denver, Col., drove needles into her head with a hammer, and after she had driven them as far as they would go, broke them off, leaving the broken pieces sticking in her skull. Later she took a butcher knife and tried to bore a hole in her head with it. A record of the girl's various attempts at suicide as follows:

July 23, 1902, drank half a pint of varnish; Oct. 8, 1902, drank concentrated lye; Sept. 25, 1903, took Peruna and ink; Jan. 14, 1904, drank concentrated lye; Oct. 25, 1904, took eyesalve internally; Nov. 13, 1905, cut her forehead with a knife; April 12, 1906, pierced a hole in her head with a darning needle and tried to bore a hole in it with a knife.

The latest attempt followed the ridicule of neighborhood boys after Miss Hendricks had injured herself by a fall down stairs. The girl fell down a cliff, her head striking on a rock, when young, and her mind has never been clear since that time. Her recovery from her recent wound is doubtful.

PARIS WINS OPENING GAME

Games This Week With Georgetown and Lexington.

The opening game of baseball in this city this season was played Sunday afternoon at the new Fair Grounds and was witnessed by between five and six hundred people, and was one of the most orderly crowds ever assembled on a ball field. The game was between Paris and the Covington Anchors, the latter being easy marks for the local team. The score was Paris, 12; Anchors, 4. Manager Lucas released Herlis, the first baseman, and Lewis, the third baseman. He will have two good men to fill their positions for the next game. Paris will play the Y. M. C. A. team of Georgetown, Wednesday. Frye, who pitched for the Lexington club Sunday and defeated the strong Muldoons, of Cincinnati, will be in the box for Georgetown. The game will be called at 3:30. Manager Lucas has made arrangements whereby all patrons of the game in the future will be provided with seats during the games.

Manager Lucas has also arranged for a series of games with Lexington, and will play the opening game of the series in this city Friday. His team will be strengthened for both of these games.

Buy Decorations.

Now remember where to get your decorations and that is at the corner of Fourth and Main, next to Price & Co. Mr. Price has donated this room to the K. T. and the decorations will be sold at Cincinnati prices, which should make everyone do the right thing. We want to show the Ky., Knights Templar that we know how to do things up in good style.

Now remember we sell you decorations at Cincinnati prices at the corner of Fourth and Main, next to Price & Co. This is where you will find complete assortment to select from.

The Bourbon Hemp Crop.

Hemp is reported to be doing nicely, but needs a good rain, as does all the crops. The acreage is fully 15 per cent larger than last year, which was 30 per cent, smaller than in 1904. The price has been gradually going up. Chas. S. Brent & Bro are now offering $6 for 112 pounds of the new crop. This is the highest price offered in the past fifteen years.

Bourbon's Champion Crop.

Mr. R. B. Hutchcraft sold to the American Tobacco Co. the finest crop of tobacco raised in Bourbon county. There were 22,000 pounds, in winter order, and he got 124 cents from the ground up. It was the stand up Burley variety.

Everything to Be Decorated.

"I wonder if Paris will have on its suit of decorations next week," inquired one of the Louisville Knights of the Bourbon News scribe. "Well, you just wait and see. We intend to have every residence on the line of march decorated, even if it is only a dollars worth."

Of Supreme Importance.

A Supreme Court decision was handed down yesterday which upholds constitutionality of the Kentucky law which gives the State the right to revoke the charter of foreign companies which remove their cases from State court. Justices Harlan and Day dissented.

The decision was given in the insurance cases growing out of Commissioner Prewitt revoking the license of several insurance companies.

The Supreme Court recently held that it had no jurisdiction in the cases but yesterday reversed their decision. The decision is of great importance all over the country.

CARL SCHURZ IS DEAD.

"Father of the Mugwump Party" Passes Away in New York.

Carl Schurz, widely known as a publicist and former cabinet member, died at his home in New York city at 4:35 o'clock, yesterday morning.

Death was due to a complication of diseases following an attack of stomach trouble, which became acute on Thursday last. In spite of brief periods of seeming improvement, Mr. Schurz slowly sank into a state of coma, which continued until the end.

At the bedside were a son, Carl L. and two daughters, Marianne and Agatha; Edward Pectorious, Mr. Schurz business manager, and Mrs. Jacoby and Strauss.

Mr. Schurz was 76 years old, having been born near Ceogne, March 2, 1829. His residence in New York was 24 East Ninety-first street.

Besides fame as a speaker, Carl Schurz has won high repute as a writer. His "Life of Henry," and his briefer "Essay on Lincoln" are standards.

BROWER'S

Our Department of Fine Arts

We have long recognized the need of a studio in Central Kentucky—that displayed nothing but tasteful, quietly pleasing objects that possess artistic merit. Goods that are distinctive—and pleasing for that reason.

Some time ago we added to our store a department of just this sort. In it one finds excellent pictures in all recognized processes of Art—Brasses, Electroliers and Lamps of pleasing designs, Colonial Mirrors, Candelabras with old-fashioned glass prisms. In short, we have a department in which one can find articles that are a pleasure to give and receive as presents—that add an additional air of elegance and refinement to any room in which they are placed. You are cordially invited to call on us.

The bride is a niece of the late J. C. Freeman, of near this city, and the prospective groom is a son of George R. Ashurst and is a popular young business man of our city. The attendants will be Miss Sadie Aker, of Lexington, John Ashurst, and So. Redmon, of this city. After the ceremony the pair will leave for a Southern trip.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Johnnie Clark Caught in Cogs of Big Wheel at Spears Mill and Crushed to Death.

Johnnie Clark, aged 16 years, met a horrible death, yesterday afternoon, at Spears' Mill, about 6 miles from town at 2 o'clock, by catching his hand in the cogs of the big wheel under the mill and being crushed to death inch by inch.

He was with a Sunday school fishing party composed of twenty of his playmates. They were all under the mill looking at the big wheel, when Johnnie Clark caught his hand in the cogs, which gradually drew his body in, crushing and mangling it half in two. The mill is run by water power and was stopped as soon as possible, but not in time to save the young and promising life. The wheel had to be reversed before they could extricate the remains from the cogs.

He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clark, of the North Middletown neighborhood, and a favorite with all of his young associates.

Horse Fell in Sewer.

There was considerable excitement for several hours Saturday evening, at corner of Pleasant and Ninth streets, caused by a horse falling into a sewer ditch where the city hands had been cleaning out the sewer. Newt, Hedges, colored, was passing the point about dark in a wagon, leading two horses when one of them stepped on a loose rock and turned a backward somersault into the ditch. After several hours of hard work he was finally rescued with several cut places in his side caused by protruding rocks on sides of the ditch. He was gotten out by first raising his head and throwing dirt under it, then lifting him a little more and putting in more dirt, keeping this process up until the ditch was nearly completely filled. He was then given a few licks with a whip and rolled out and sprang to his feet.

Among the guests were Misses Nellie Long, Lucile Price, Julia Clark, Elizabeth Huddleston, Jesse Crisp, P. O. Johnson, Dr. Horsv. and Messrs. Harry Stivers, Jason Redmon, Joe Holt, and Sam Shanker. A delightful lunch was served, and the house was tastefully decorated with the High School colors and flowers.

—The custom of the young ladies of Bourbon College to give a reception at the close of the spring term, caused a scene of unusual gaiety at the college Friday evening. It eclipsed all of their former entertainments. The halls, parlor, library and dining room were decorated in the class colors and college pennants, with palms, ferns and American Beauty roses. Prof. and Mrs. M. G. Thomson, the principals, and four young ladies of the Sen'or class, Misses Katie Bastin, of Pittsburg, Georgia; Rion, of Paris, Maud Leach, and Edna Elliott, of the county, were in the receiving line, and most graciously welcomed the one hundred and fifty guests present. It was a brilliant occasion, and one and all took their departure at a late hour looking forward and hoping they would have the pleasure of attending another entertainment given by the young ladies of Bourbon College.

—Mrs. Vol Ferguson entertained with a most charming euchre party Friday afternoon at her handsome country home near Centerville in honor of two of the very attractive brides of the winter, Mrs. James W. Ferguson and Mrs. Hume Payne. Misses Gay and Martha Ferguson presided at the punch table. Four handsome prizes were awarded. Mrs. Owen Davis won a Tiffany glass vase for the highest number of games. Mrs. Charlton Alexander received a silver pie knife for the ten-hand prize. Mrs. Earl Ferguson a pretty vase for the twenty-hand prize. After the prizes were given a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Ferguson's guests were: Mesdames James Ferguson, Hume Payne, June Payne, James Thompson, Walter Payne, W. C. Usery, J. M. Hall, Earl Ferguson, Willie Ferguson, Owen Davis, W. L. Yerkes, W. E. Board, W. T. Talbott, Robt. Goggin, James Wilson, Louis Rogers, Wash Webb, Henry May, Tom Buckner, William Wornall, Frank Fithian, Duncan Bell, W. M. Hinton, Jr., Charlton Alexander, Walter Kenney, James E. Clay, Buckner Woodford, Laura Wiggins, Swift Champ, Miller Ward, George Stuart, E. M. Dickson; Misses Emma Scott, Ollie Butler, Bessie Holladay, Nanny Wilson, Sallie Burgin, Annie May and Annie Clay.

A CORN FED HUMORIST

Likes His Little Joke as Well as the Best of Them.

It is not alone the American of the cities, or of the brisk West, or social Pullman smoker, who is a native storyteller. The dweller in the isolated mountains, who knows not the shriek of the locomotive, and whose experience of the world is bounded by the red clay roads of his home county, likes his little joke as well as the best of them all.

Two gentlemen were traveling in one of the hill counties of Kentucky, not long ago, bound on an exploration for pitch pine. They had been driving for two hours without encountering a human being when they came in sight of a cabin in a clearing. It was very still. The hogs lay where they had fallen, the thin clay-bank mule grazed 'round and 'round in a neat circle, to save the trouble of walking, and one lean, lank man, whose garments were the color of the clay-bank mule, leaned against a tree and let time roll by.

"Wonder if he can speak?" said one traveler to the other.

"Try him," said his companion.

The two approached the man, whose yellowish eyes regarded them without apparent curiosity.

"How do you do?" said the Northerner.

"Howdy?" remarked the Southerner, languidly.

"Pleasant country."

"Fur them that likes it."

"Lived here all your life?"

The Southerner spat pensively in the dust.

"Not yit," he said.

Brown Dick Dead.

Edward D. Brown, known as "Brown Dick" throughout the turf world, with which he has been connected as a trainer for forty years, died Friday at Louisville. He was fifty-six years of age.

Years ago "Brown Dick" was the most successful colored trainer in the country. He last trained horses for Edward Alvey. He was also an owner at one time, having in his string Protection and several other good horses.

Cupid behind the arrow is more dangerous than the man behind the gun.

A Year of Blood.

The year of 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. Kings' New Discovery for consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven, permanently cured." Guaranteed for sore lungs, coughs and colds, at Oberdorfer's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Whose Say-so is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Finley Edmund, M. D., of Bennet Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale of the same city; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover Coe, of New York; Dr. Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, of Pa., and scores of others equally eminent.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prolapus, anteversion and retroversion and corrects irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakening drains, soothes times known as pelvic catarrh and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated physician, of large experience in the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidently takes his patients into his full confidence by telling them just what his "Prescription" is composed of. Of no other medicine put up for woman's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honorably, by letting every patient using the same know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

When you consider breeding, individuality, and the kind of colts he gets, Sunland Bourbon's fee is lower than any stallion we know of.

CUSTER SHOT HIMSELF.

A New Story of Fighter's Death in Big Horn Massacre.

More or less mystery has surrounded the death of Gen. Custer in the famous massacre on the banks of the Little Big Horn in the Sioux country, in the early 60's, and the account of the white historians have always been taken a little doubtfully. Chief Rain-In-the-Face boastfully declared throughout his life, that the fearless Indian fighter met his death at his own hands, but this is denied by Chief Shot-In-The-Eye, one of the old Sioux Indians, who was present at the massacre, and is authority for the statement that Custer committed suicide by turning his revolver upon himself, after almost all his followers had been killed, and there was no hope for the remainder.

Shot-In-The-Eye was in command of a body of Indians that occupied the top of a bluff close to the battle ground, his duty being to guard against escape by way of a pass, and he was a witness of the battle. He declared that the white historians estimated the Indian forces at about 3,000 whereas there were 8,000 warriors camped just across the river. It was impossible for all these to get into the fight, and only about 5,000 of them were in the army that surrounded the little squad of United States soldiers and killed every one of them.

After passing through the pass in the bluffs which let him in upon the Indian camp, Custer brought his command to a halt in a little basin, admirably suited for defensive fighting, and proceeded to reconnoiter. He evidently underestimated the number of Indians, as after a night's rest he moved his little command from the hollow out on the plains, into the very trap the Indians had been laying for him over night. Once out of the hollow Custer was soon surrounded without his knowing it, and he kept on with his advance.

He saw Indians moving across the river, apparently retreating, and was puzzled by their actions. He finally stopped and fired a volley into the tepees, and the fight began. The Indian warriors under the bank, raised and began such a deadly fire that the soldiers were taken by surprise, and fell back towards the bluff again. Not knowing the danger behind them, they retreated up the hill side, and were rushing for the protection of the ridges and gullies on a gallop when they were met with a volley from the Indians laying in ambush there. Nearly the whole command was killed at the first fire, and the remainder, seeing that they were doomed, gathered in a triangle, and kept fighting doggedly, closing up as their number decreased.

Finally when not more than a dozen men remained, Custer, who was unharmed, knowing that he had been spared in the hope of capturing and torturing him, fired the last shot from his revolver into his own head, and in a short time the balance of the men had fallen. Chief Shot-In-The-Eye has declared that only one man escaped, an officer, who, after riding away from his pursuers, halted his horse, pulled his revolver, and killed himself.

LIKE AN EXECUTION

Was One of the Early Day Surgical Operations.

A hair raising account of the first surgical operation performed in Foxes' School district, Westmoreland county, Pa., is told by a resident of that locality, and reminds one somewhat of the days of the guillotine, only in this case it was a foot that was dismembered instead of the head.

It was in the year 1830 that a woman named Mrs. Croft suffered from a sore toe, which developed blood poisoning. Dr. Patterson, a practicing physician, was called to attend the sufferer, and decided that an operation would be necessary to save her life. Not having the proper instruments with which to perform the operation, the physician secured a sharp meat ax, and a sledge hammer from the blacksmith shop. Armed with these weapons, and accompanied by the brawny blacksmith, the doctor, looking more like a grim executioner than a reliever of suffering, proceeded to the woman's home.

Her foot was placed on a block of wood, and on each side of the member was placed a large potato. The physician rested the keen edge of the ax on the potatoes, and then, when all was in readiness and the patient was clenching her teeth to face the ordeal, the signal was given. With his muscular arms the blacksmith lifted the sledge hammer above his head, and bringing it down with a tremendous force on the ax, severed the foot as neatly as any modern surgeon might have done. The foot was then carefully dressed, and before long the woman was again in good health.

FLIES BY THE TON

Exported From Brazil and Carried to England.

A ton of dead flies was the strange cargo a vessel from Brazil unloaded at the London docks. Dead flies are admirable food for chickens, birds in captivity and captive fish. But there being no flies to speak of in England, those in search of this delicacy for their animals have to send to Brazil, where there are flies on everything. The River Amazon abounds with flies. Brazilians float down the stream in boat and scoop in millions of flies which circle in dense clouds just above the water's edge. The flies are killed, dried thoroughly in the sun and packed in bags. They are then shipped.

Dead flies constitute one of the richest foods for animals. For chickens the flies are mixed with other ingredients, such as millet and corn. By themselves the flies are too rich, but their power of nourishment is so great that a small quantity of them has a most beneficial effect.

Two years ago the Brazilian government stopped the exportation, being afraid that the fish in the rivers would suffer by being deprived of this fly food. But the prohibition has been removed.

Formerly dead flies sold at 10 cents a pound, but the demand has so grown and the supply so lessened that 20 cents a pound is now charged. One ton of flies fills a large room, as there are only fifteen pounds of flies to a bushel.

Kentucky Pensioners.

The government has about 28,000 pensioners in Kentucky who receive on an average about $12 per month, or in the aggregate, one million dollars each quarter. Most of these are from the Civil War, but a few are from the Mexican and Indian Wars, and an increasing number from the Spanish-American War. Quite a number of widows of veterans of the war of 1812 still remain.

INDIGESTION'S RECORD

"The best remedy I can prescribe for your indigestion, madam, is Green's August Flower. I know of several other physicians who prescribe it regularly."

Indigestion is making an awful record as a cause of sudden deaths. It is beating heart-failure in its ghastly harvest. You read in the papers daily of apparently healthy and even robust men being suddenly attacked with acute indigestion after enjoying a hearty meal, and of their dying in many cases before a physician could be called in.

This should be a warning to you who suffer with regular or periodical attacks of indigestion. If these unfortunate victims of acute indigestion had taken a small dose of Green's August Flower before or after their meals they would not have fallen a prey to such sudden seizures. August Flower prevents indigestion by creating good digestion. It also regulates the liver, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system in a natural way.

THE FAIR

The Fair draws trade by sheer force of values. It isn't so much our advertising that does it as the way we back up that advertising in the store. It is easy enough for anyone to advertise low prices, for low prices in themselves mean nothing. It is low prices coupled with good worthy quality that counts, and it is, on just that combination that The Fair places dependence. When any person notes in our ads a particularly low price on some article which he or she wants and comes and examines the article, it is invariably found to be an even better bargain than the price in print would indicate. We invariably make in our policy to understate rather than to overstate. No one who comes here to investigate will be disappointed, unless it is agreeably.

The special train will leave the Tenth-street Union station over the L. and N. railroad at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday May 22. The train will arrive at Paris at 6:30 o'clock. It will be finely equipped and will be in charge of R. L. Utterback a member of DeMolay Commandery."

"The quarters of the commandery at Paris will be in Bourbon College which is situated on spacious grounds. A reception will be given from 8 to 12 o'clock Wednesday night. The grounds will be brilliantly lighted and an orchestra will provide music for the occasion. Several of the commanderies of the State including Louisville No. 1 will entertain on a lavish scale. The people of Paris are making preparations to give the Sir Knights a royal welcome. Maysville will make a strong effort to get the next meeting of the Grand Commandery."

Warning to Carpenters.

The following will explain itself: Lexington, Ky., May 11, 1906. To the Editor of the Bourbon News: We of local union 1650, Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, request you through your paper to notify the carpenters of your city to keep away from Lexington as we are on a strike for a nine hour day and a small increase in wages.

Respectfully,
V. D'GARMO,
Secretary Pro Tem.

Will Not Seek Presidency.

M. C. Wetmore, of St. Louis, a personal friend of W. J. Bryan, yesterday received from Mr. Bryan, who is in Egypt, a letter, in which he says: "I am satisfied that the things I have been fighting for are growing, but who will be most available in 1908 is a question that can not be answered now. I shall not do anything to secure another nomination, and do not want it unless circumstances seem to demand it—time alone can determine that." This is the first authoritative statement of Mr. Bryan's attitude toward the Presidency in 1908.

STOCK AND CROP.

—W. G. McIntyre bought 700 pounds of wool from Ed Turner at 30 cents.

—G. W. Ellis bought of Walker Kiser 6,000 pounds of tobacco at $8.35 straight.

—One of the large mules owned by the Standard Oil Company, and driven by R. L. Whaley, died at Millersburg with colic. He was valued at $225.

—Hibler Bros. shipped last week three car-loads of hogs, for which they paid 6 cents per pound, and two car loads of choice 800-pound heifers which cost them $4.12½.

—W. D. McIntyre, of Millersburg, sold to Roxie Davis 17 cattle averaging 1,120 pounds at 5 cents per pound, and also sold 13 averaging 1,010 pounds to Ben Woodford, Jr., at same price. Mr. McIntyre was in Paris Friday and received about 4,500 pounds of wool from farmers around Paris, which cost from 25 to 30 cents per pound.

Enthusiastic Over Proposed Road

The proposed interurban road from Lexington to Sharpsburg, via Clintonville and North Middletown, has aroused much enthusiasm at Sharpsburg. Hon. Waller Sharp, who owns all the land between Sharpsburg limits and the Bourbon county line, says he will donate the right-of-way for the road. Consequently, the company would be at no expense for the right-of-way in Bath county.

BLOCK LIGHTS.

I have a large stock of the famous Block Gas Lamps. Lamp and mantel complete, only 50 cents.
